

THE DANIEL GORENSTEIN MEMORIAL AWARD
Academic Year 2022

The Daniel Gorenstein Memorial Award, named to honor the memory of the noted mathematician and Rutgers University Professor Daniel Gorenstein, shall be awarded to a Rutgers full time faculty member who best exemplifies Professor Gorenstein's imaginative research and his dedicated and exceptional service to the University. The recipient of the award shall receive an honorarium and commemorative certificate, and will present a lecture for the University and the public on the occasion of the award ceremony in the fall semester.

Name of Candidate: _____

Title: _____

Department: _____

Academic Unit: _____
(College/School/Faculty or Bureau/Center/Institute)

Campus Address _____

Email Address _____

Name, campus address, and email of person making nomination:

Please prepare a nomination packet that contains this form, the recommendation form, and all the information requested below in a single pdf file.

- a. A letter of nomination describing nominee's achievements in research, teaching, and service to the University;
- b. A single page in each category documenting scholarly, service, and teaching achievements, including awards and honors;
- c. The nominee's current curriculum vitae;
- d. Up to 3 letters of support from people, internal or external, that specifically address the nominee's relevant accomplishments.

Recommendation Form
THE DANIEL GORENSTEIN MEMORIAL AWARD

Name of Candidate: _____

Department Head Recommendation: Recommended _____ Not Recommended _____

Name: _____
(Dept. Head/Chair)

Campus
Address: _____

Email: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Dean (Academic Unit) Recommendation: Recommended _____ Not Recommended _____

Name: _____
(Dean/Director)

Campus
Address: _____

Email: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Please send your nomination to evpaa@rutgers.edu
no later than August 1, 2022

* * * * *