The Committee to Advance Our Common Purposes (CACP) is proud to present the Leaders in Faculty Diversity Award to faculty who have been leaders in promoting diversity, inclusion, equity, and access through their research and teaching across Rutgers University. The Clement A. Price Human Dignity Award is presented to faculty, staff, students and community partners in recognition of outstanding individuals that have demonstrated extraordinary achievement and commitment to promoting and practicing diversity and inclusion at Rutgers University and/or in partnership with the broader community.

The CACP Human Dignity Award was renamed in memory of the late Dr. Clement Alexander Price in recognition of his humanitarian vision for unity and peace through inclusion and diversity. Dr. Price was Board of Governors Distinguished Service Professor, former CACP chair; and founding director of the Rutgers Institute on Ethnicity, Culture and the Modern Experience, Rutgers University-Newark.

The Committee to Advance Our Common Purposes, CACP, is a diversity and inclusion initiative of the Office of the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs. CACP was founded in 1987 and has a long history of recognizing excellence in diversity, inclusion, and equity. Dr. Edward Ramsamy, Associate Professor and chair of the Department of Africana Studies, SAS, Rutgers University-New Brunswick, serves as interim chair and Isabel Nazario, Associate Vice President for Strategic Initiatives is co-chair. The committee includes faculty, students, and staff from across the university— Rutgers University-Camden, Rutgers University-Newark, Rutgers University-New Brunswick, and Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences (RBHS).

CACP's Mission is to promote the development of a university community that values and advances diversity and inclusion. We will help to nurture and sustain a civil, compassionate, intellectually honest, and inclusive academic community that is respectful and fosters dialogue, and interaction between those with differing views and belief systems.
